

Research Portfolio Summary

Contents:

- Research Outputs
Publications
Oral presentations

- Research Contributions
Funding
Supporting students

Publications:

1. Data Science in the business environment: customer analytics case studies in SMEs. (July 2020)
Available on Emerald Insight <https://www.emerald.com/insight/1746-5664.htm>
Authors:
Jing Lu, Dept of Digital Technologies, University of Winchester
Lisa Cairns, Winchester Business School
Lucy Smith, Oakhaven Hospice Trust. (July 2020)
2. End of Life Care in the New Forest and Waterside Areas: Scoping the current landscape – what is happening and why?. Dr Philippa Hunter-Jones; Dr Lynn Sudbury-Riley; Dr Jonathan Moss. (Autumn 2017 – May 2018).
3. ‘Palliative Care: the physiotherapy perspective’. Janina John, Head of Physiotherapy Services. Article published on e-Hospice (June 2014)
4. Situated learning: ‘improving end of life care in the long-term care sector’. Article published on e-Hospice (October 2013)
Jenny Butler, Staff Nurse and Educational Practitioner.
5. C R Besley, Hellen Kariuki, M.Fallon: - ‘A pilot study investigating the effect of a patient-held pain assessment tool in palliative care outpatients at AIC Kijabe Hospital, Kenya’. Published in Palliative Medicine in June (2014).
- 6 C.R Besley – ‘Can a Patient-held assessment tool improve pain management in palliative outpatients at a rural Kenyan Hospital. Besley, C ; published in BMJ Supportive & Palliative Care 2014:4 (Supplement 1): A70
7. Smith, L & Hoyal, C (2015)

Case Study Masterclass: Bladder Cancer.
European Journal of Palliative Care 22(6)

Presentations:

1. Feedback Posters – ‘Transforming service user experiences in palliative and end of life care: An application of the touchpoint tool’. showing findings and information. Presentation at Oakhaven Hospice Away Day 2018.
2. Poster for Hospice UK Conference 2017 – ‘Hospice Community Engagement Networks’ Leading, Learning and Innovating. Vicky Lander, Community Engagement Administrator.
3. Poster presentation for Hospice UK Conference 2013 – ‘Developing Capacity in End of Life Care: The evolution of ‘Situated Learning’ at Oakhaven Hospice Trust’. Jenny Butler, Staff Nurse and Associate CNS.
4. Poster presentation for AIC Kijabe Hospital Palliative Care Services titled ‘A pilot study investigating the effect of a patient-held pain assessment tool in palliative care outpatients at AIC Kijabe Hospital, Kenya’. Co-authors: Dr Hellen N Kariuki – University of Nairobi and Prof Marie Fallon – University of Edinburgh.
A quantitative Experimental Study with Pre- & Post – Intervention Comparison.
5. ‘Innovation & Research in Palliative Care’, Christmas Meeting – December 2012

Research Contributions:

Funded:

NEW:

July 2020 to June 2022

Contribution to NIHR application 'Investigating the use of telehealth to remote monitor symptoms of palliative care patients in the community'.

2015-2016

SMART study. NIHR funded. Self-management of analgesia and related treatments at End of Life.

2017-2019

Optimum Hospice at Home Services for End of Life Care. NIHR funded.

Supporting Students

2018

‘Effect and materiality in therapeutic spaces. A contemporary archaeology of hospices.’ John Harries PhD: 2018 visit to Oakhaven and interview staff members.

2015 – 2018

‘An investigation of multi-professional involvement in the advance care planning process within Nursing Homes.’ Nicola Andres, PhD Student

2015 – 2017

‘A pilot intervention to improve oncology professionals’ perceptions of communication with people with an intellectual disability.’

Samantha Flynn, PhD