We are delighted to announce that Hugo Vickers, well-known biographer, lecturer and broadcaster, is able to join us at Chewton Glen this year as our guest speaker for this unmissable Woman of Our Time luncheon.

The Financial Times recently described Hugo as ‘the most knowledgeable royal biographer on the planet’. He has written many biographies of 20th century figures, including Cecil Beaton, Vivien Leigh, the Duchess of Windsor, Princess Andrew of Greece and the Queen Mother. In May 2021, Hugo published Malice in Wonderland, with extracts from his own diaries about researching the life of Cecil Beaton.

He is a Deputy Lieutenant for the Royal County of Berkshire and Captain of the Lay Stewards of St George’s Chapel, Windsor Castle, having served as a Lay Steward for nearly 52 years.
